

RAINBOW NOTES:

I. Struggle for Women's Rights

A. Reasons that women sought equal rights to men in the mid-1800's included:

1. Women could not _____ or hold _____.
2. When a woman married, all of her _____ became her _____ property.
3. A working woman's _____ belonged to her _____.
4. A husband had the right to _____ his wife.
5. The abolitionist movement made people aware that women, too, lacked full _____ and _____ rights.

II. Leaders of the Women's Rights Movement

1. _____: this former slave was a spellbinding speaker. She spoke against _____ and also for women's _____.
2. _____: this Quaker woman used her organizing skills to set up _____ drives across the _____.
3. _____: Stanton joined Mott and other Americans at the _____ in _____. Back at home in the United States, she and Mott organized a convention to draw attention to _____ problems.
4. _____: traveled across the country, speaking tirelessly for women's rights.

III. The Seneca Falls Convention

A. _____— meeting held in 1848 at Seneca Falls, New York, to discuss the problems that women faced. It was the start of the _____ _____, an organization campaign for equal rights.

Goals:

1. The convention issued a _____ of _____, which proclaimed, "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all _____
and _____ are created equal."

2. Resolutions demanded equality at _____,
at _____, and at _____.

3. A resolution demanding women's right to _____ passed narrowly.

IV. New Opportunities for Women

A. Reformers believed that _____ was a key to women's equality.

Reformers opened new schools for women.

1. _____ opened a high school for girls in Troy, New York.

2. _____ opened Mount Holyoke Female Seminary in Massachusetts, the first women's _____ in the United States.

B. Women began to find new career opportunities as their education improved.

Examples:

1. _____: became the first woman in the United States to practice medicine.
2. _____: became a noted astronomer.
3. _____: became the first female ordained minister in the United States.
